

Veterans' Lived Experiences Series

The Veterans Health and Wellness Foundation \(VHWF\) in partnership with the George Mason University's \(GMU's\) Military, Veterans and Families Initiative \(MVFI\) presents at 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm EST on 08 December 2020 – the next topic in our Veterans' Lived Experiences Series:

Accessing the System

About this Event: As service members leave the military and re-enter civilian life, figuring out the maze of benefits and resources available to them can be overwhelming. This can be exacerbated by all of the other stresses of this transition and can continue unchecked. In this webinar the Veterans Health and Wellness Foundation and George Mason University's MVFI have partnered to bring you one veteran's story of how she fought to overcome the bureaucratic hurdles and access the system of benefits available to veterans. In addition, our experts will provide an overview of resources to help veterans navigate the complex maze of benefits, so that they can get the resources to which they are entitled.
